OPERATION BLIZZARD

Should the situation arise where buses operate in the morning but cannot return the children home in the afternoon due to inclement weather, we will proceed with “Operation Blizzard”. Each family, whose child(ren) ride the bus should designate a family in Watertown where arrangements have been made in advance for their children to stay. Buses will be available to return students who live in mobile home courts adjacent to the city of Watertown to their homes during “Operation Blizzard”. These courts include South View, Town and Country, Mobile Estates, Bayview, Lakeview, Country View, Mallard Cove, Pelican View and Pelican Plaza. Additionally, buses will return students to homes in the Northridge Addition, Herzog Addition, as well as Little Blessings daycare. Buses will be available at the school to take children to any part of the city excluding residences located near or around Lake Kameska.

The following questionnaire will help us in making sure that each child will have a home to go to, and that you as parents can be assured that each child will be at the home designated. Please call the administrative staff if you have questions, concerns, or wish to make special arrangements.
